PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The Parish Community of Saint Ann's in Neponset is in the tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. We believe that this tradition is a sacred gift given to us in Baptism and the inheritance bequeathed to us by those who have gone before us through the ages. With our Archbishop and Pastor we are united with our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, in our commitment to- and we are indeed shaped as a people by- the Eucharistic Assembly especially on the Lord's Day. We are strongly committed to maintaining our parish school and religious education programs. We are equally committed to the spiritual needs of those who are grieving or who are ill or because of advanced age are unable to celebrate the Sunday Eucharist. Through the Liturgy we hope to inspire and motivate our parish family to respond to the physical needs of the less fortunate of Christ's brothers and sisters. We are a parish that is deeply committed to the family.

We are a parish with a long and rich history and take great pride in celebrating our Catholic traditions.

— Luke 2:22-40 Excerpt taken from the Writings of Fr. Peter Cameron, OP – Dominican Teacher and Editor of Magnificat©

Feast of the Holy Family,
Jesus' first experience of humanity does not happen in solitude or isolation – like Adam in the Garden of Eden. Rather, the New Adam's Incarnate encounter with eh world occurs within the embrace of his particular human family. The Church honors the holy Family today to emphasize the function of the family in our own human development and growth, to stress the roles of the Holy Family in deepening our relationship with god, and to remind us how the Holy Family serves as an enduring icon of that external exchange of love which is the blessed Trinity. In effect, the Holy Family is a kind of recreated Garden of Eden. The original unity of the family stands as the standard for all unity in life. The Gospel shows us the Holy Family doing three things that manifest their holiness and that invite us to emulate them. We first meet them worshipping in the temple. The life of the Holy Family is formed by devout faith marked by prayer and sacrifice. Their communal act of consecration reveals how we come to discover our true human dignity and worth in the sacrifices our family makes in faith. The piety a child demonstrates towards his parents becomes the foundation for a lifetime reverence toward God. In the same way, children who witness their parents worshipping God become blessed with the ability to understand and believe in the truth of God's love for them. For children identify the way God loves them with that first love they experience from their parents. Second, we also see the Holy Family together accepting suffering in the life. For Simeon, the Holy Family is the fulfillment of a long-held hope. When he takes the child Jesus in his arms he also happily accepts the reality of his won death, blesses with the assurance that the "light and glory" of God has appeared in Jesus. But the hope the Holy Family gives to Simeon has a price: "The thoughts of many hearts may be revealed" only through the suffering of the Holy Family. But the trust, commitment, selflessness, and confidence they share fill them with the assurance and strength they need to fulfill God's will with courage. The peace of the family provides the profound understanding we need to see how God uses suffering to fulfill his divine Providence. The security of the family equips us to confront and overcome the insecurity of life. Third, however, the Holy Family's love is not inward and exclusive. It reaches out to the world, beginning with the prophetess Anna who "gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all..." Just as the love of the Holy Family transformed all "who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem,

“so too does the charity and outreach of every family rooted in Christ up build and perfect human society. The goodness experienced within the family achieves its perfection as it is zealously and generously directed toward the common good of all. The model of the Holy Family assures us that every Christian family is that community and place of grace where we too grow in size, strength, and wisdom. As we enter into the faith, hope and love of the Holy Family, we come to share more deeply in the very holiness of the Blessed Trinity.

May the Holy Family keep us close and draw us even deeper into the mysteries we celebrate.

In His Christmas love, Fr. Sean

PRAYER FOR FAMILIES

God, Our Father, loving and merciful
Bring together and keep all families
In perfect unity of love and mutual support. Instill in each member the Spirit of understanding and affection for each other.

Keep quarrels and bitterness far from them,
And for their occasional failures instill forgiveness and peace.

May the mutual love and affection of Parents set a good example.

Instill in children self-respect that they may respect others and grow in mature independence.

Make the mutual affection and respect of families a sign of Christian life here.

And hereafter, through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, Amen.

A PARISH THANK YOU

As we see 2008 coming to a close we'd like to take this opportunity to thank all those who volunteered their time and talent to St. Ann Parish. Without these volunteers whether its volunteering to help in the celebration of the Mass, teach our young parishioners religious education, singing faithfully in the choir or folk group, helping to keep the parish running by being a member of the Finance Council or the Pastoral Council and all the others jobs that need to be done everyday to keep this parish running; without your help we would not be able to continue being the strong parish that we are. Thank you and may you have a Happy and Blessed New Year 2009.
